2024 Denver International Spirits Competition Now Accepting Entries

America's best-valued international spirits competition offers increased benefits.

BROOMFIELD, Colorado - Wine Country Network, Inc., publishers of Wine Country International® Magazine and a global leader in producing professional beverage competitions, has announced that the 13th Annual Denver International Spirits Competition will occur from March 2 to 10, 2024. This double-blind competition is judged by certified spirits specialists, seasoned buyers, mixologists, sommeliers, and master distillers.

The Denver International Spirits Competition is recognized as one of the world's premier international spirits competitions. Now in its thirteenth year, the DISC has grown by double digits annually. The competition accepts spirits in more than 125 categories and is judged double-blind by a seasoned team of certified spirits specialists and experienced buyers. The DISC uses a proprietary evaluation form and a 100-point scale to score entries. The judging team exclusively uses the NEAT™ Ultimate Spirits Evaluation Glass.

There are more than 4,650 licensed distilleries, 1,500 merchant bottle brands in the US, and more than 10,000 International distilleries. The DISC provides significant marketing benefits to winners, including physical die-cast award medals and judges' notes, which help brands improve their products.

Winners' Benefits Include:

- Handsome die-cast medals provided to all winners.
- Royalty-free digital medal art provided within 24 hours of the winner's announcement.
- Actual scores and judge's notes (provided upon request).
- Follow-up article in Wine Country International® Magazine.
